

GLOBAL PHILADELPHIA'S SDG MURAL ARTIST, ISABELLE CRESS

Announcing Isabelle Cress, St. Mary Class of 2013, as our SDG Mural Artist!

This work of art will be one of a series of seventeen art installations based on the United Nation's 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDG's). St. Mary Interparochial School is proud to partner with Global Philadelphia Association and Isabelle Cress to bring this work of art to our community!

Isabelle Cress '13 is an illustrator, creative writer and graphic designer from Philadelphia, PA. Isabelle graduated from St. Mary Interparochial School in 2013 and went on to graduate from the University of the Arts in 2021 with a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Illustration and a minor in Creative Writing. She's currently a graphic designer for the Museum of American Revolution while also freelancing in both the illustration and design fields. Her illustrations revolve around fantastical themes of storytelling, specifically supernatural, spiritual, and mythological.

Together with other nonprofits, including Mural Arts Philadelphia, the Global Philadelphia Association is sponsoring art representing all 17 SDGs. As part of its commitment to developing and sustaining partnerships locally and globally, Saint Mary has chosen to sponsor art for SDG 17: Partnerships for the Goals.

This commissioned art piece will be installed for public viewing outdoors on the 5th Street side of Saint Mary's building and will highlight the concept of how local, national, and global partnerships are essential to achieving SDG 17. The artwork will be displayed on the building for approximately two years. At the end of this initial period of display, artwork for all 17 SDGs will be showcased at an exhibition sponsored by Global Philadelphia.
